Another "gem" from you, Bobby. Of course, everybody knows that PGMA has been dreaming of this scenario for quite sometime and I don't believe she will allow anyone or anything to stand in her way. Let her come and be embarrassed in the process. For her and her big ego, an invitation from BHO is god-sent. BTW, do you know if the First Gentleman or is it Last Gentleman will be with her together with a couple of hundred members of her entourage? No wonder why the Philippines is always broke.
