Dear Brother Ramon: We took the literary initiative of publishing in our website's Obituary and Memorial Park Section your piece on the death of your beloved father. Here is the hyperlink: Fernando Gonzales (1930-2010): His Son Examines Death from the Bible's Viewpoints URL: <http://www.mabuhayradio.com/obituary-memorial-park/fernando-gonzales-1930-2010-his-son-examines-death-from-the-bible-s-viewpoints> We invite you and your family members to send us more details about your late Dad, so that we can publish an article about him in a forthcoming book, "Wisdom of, and Lessons from, Filipino Fathers" (new tentative title) as explained in this article, Wisdom of our Filipino Fathers \(Without Apology to Tim Russert\) URL: <http://www.mabuhayradio.com/obituary-memorial-park/wisdom-of-our-filipino-fathers-without-apology-to-tim-russert> We send to you and the Gonzales Family our most-sincere condolences and prayers for his late father. In solidarity, Bobby M. Reyes Editor www.mabuhayradio.com In a message dated 12/28/2010 4:33:09 P.M. I wish to quote: "Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for a moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations." - George Bernard Shaw My query now, should we the so-called Christians 'Pray for the Dead' (Ecclesiastes 9:5)?
