Dear Brod Jay: Yes, it true but Mr. Marcos was acquitted by the Supreme Court on appeal. And there was only one victim in the Nalundasan case while there are at least seven individuals murdered and more-than 100 injured in the Hacienda Luisita 2004 Massacre. I cannot understand really why some Filipinos who do not come from Tarlac or who are not farmers or farm laborers see the Cojuangco-Aquinos as "uncanonized" saints. The Hacienda Luisita top management people and some of its owners have blood on their hands. As I asked in my rebuttal against the Esposito column, "Is land worth killing people?" If I were the Catholic bishop of Tarlac, I would excommunicate all the Cojuangcos and Aquinos involved in the Hacienda Luisita for they are not even Christians for ordering the killing of the farmer-beneficiaries. The farmers will get justice and take over the Hacienda under a Manny Villar presidency. Mabuhay, Bobby M. Reyes Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
