Mang Mon, Have you heard of the recent news on tons of double-dead meat being confiscated in Balintawag market? I was surprised too to learn that there were dog meat being sold in some places in QC. I grew up in a place where people do not eat balut. But we do eat a lot of raw fish. Just like the Japanese, I grew up eating raw sea urchins and a lot of raw fish. Best of all we drink a lot of buko juice. What do you think of siopao made from cats, dogs or would you prefer those made from dead meat. How about siomai made from balut? Don't forget to drink your buko juice, Let's eat more fresh vegies and raw foods. Stay healthy, Mang Mon All the best, Alex Kho Alabang Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
