

family values - MabuhayRadio

Written by joanna saludaes

Friday, 03 December 2010 20:32 - bottom line, whether we all have lives of our own, we are still family and should never forget. My ninong Jesse, had every right to be hurt. As the oldest of our family, if my own brothers and wives did not acknowledge my child...all hell would break lose and i would be extremely hurt. All of you are professional, and should not have any excuse or reason other than selfish motives on your end. If the shoes were on the other foot, you all would feel the same as my Ninong Jess. More power and I hope you all hurt from the words off his pen. Family should always be first no matter what and extended families will always understand. I am also a Jose...as my dad is my Ninong's cousin.... Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF