I go for it Bobby. Meeting GMA and giving her a mediocre welcome will not cost the presidency of Obama. But failing to satisfy the two "the cop and Harvard professor" and make amends for his burst of emotion will surely drive him to the quagmire. His "regret" in place of apology was not a front page article to avoid embarrassing the president so mainstream newspapers supporting him placed the stories inside. GMA before the end of her term put a shame on the Harlem Globetrotters. She beats them by making or having the most travels in one year (2009). Or better still, talo pa rin si Ka Fidel, the grand viajero and tabako. In quoting GMA in her most embarrassing SONA, "don't say bad words." Ka Larry Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
