I am sure Joy got it from the audited reports. Re Nony's comments, well, some of us cannot be silenced - look at what happened to Lorna when she issued that note - it was "controlling" indeed and we are not even a police state yet. It is so demoralizing to read the allegations of impropriety and it is difficult to move forward, especially right now that we are at the throes of mounting a regional conference next month. Now I am curious as to what Ian Purganan has to say to all of us adults. Ed Navarra . Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
