I don't insult well-meaninged people. I, however, will put attention to their misaligned loyalties and misplaced words that supposedly help NaFFAA evolve as a true empowerment organization. Take this off-line, please --- that is, if you're the professional volunteer that I thought you were. Stay well, Ernie! Peace and harmony are better than these misplaced words of yours. Your health is more important to me --- so I am not going to go to places where you might get sick --- such as all these hateful words that you are spewing out. I've lost too many friends (I lost another one recently) and family so I know that I am grateful to know the people I am defending and am standing up for.
