Dear My Friend Don: I never used the word "plagiarism" (whether as a noun or a verb, to plagiarize) in my e-mail addressed to Ka Jesse and Romy and to the six of you as the other recipients. Please read it again. I respect your opinion but I even titled the subject matter: "Re: Let Us Just Say Rizal Was Inspired by 'The Count of Monte Cristo'." So, please don't put words into my postings because it is like putting words into my mouth and I don't need mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. LOL. Mabuhay and thanks but no thanks to your commentary, Lolo Bobby Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
