

Morga's Commentary About Filipino Cultural Traits - MabuhayRadio

Written by Bobby Manasan

Tuesday, 22 June 2010 11:20 -

JM Nepomuceno wrote: "This time the truly pissed off non-elite will not even bitch ..." i sincerely wish you good luck in your hopes, JM. remember that you are swimming against the currents of culture, customs and traditions of the natives of the 7,107 islands. i'm sure you remember these cultural traits of the natives that morga observed in the late 1500s: "The contracts and negotiations of these natives were generally illegal, each one paying attention to how he might better his own business and interest. "Both men and women are so selfish and greedy that, if they are paid, they are easily won over." the terrible retribution for government criminals you are promoting was expected by US supreme court louis brandeis. you are in good company: "The government is the potent omnipresent teacher. For good or ill it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy. To declare that the end justifies the means -- to declare that the government may commit crimes -- would bring terrible retribution." - Justice Louis D. Brandeis (1856-1941) US Supreme Court Justice cheers, bobby Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF