

Pres. Obama's Appointment of a Pinay -Lee - MabuhayRadio

Written by Bing De La Vega

Friday, 17 September 2010 13:26 -

Another laundering of dirty filipino linen goes on within the Filcom coast to coast than seldom even occurs at other asian cultures. Rare Filipinos appear united and only when say, Pacquiao won another fight. Or that the promise of P-Noy's election appear to have rallied the masses. For the good of the country. Amidst accusation on criminal activity, or the absence of actual suits filed in the court of law, please, naman, stop the nakaka-hiya na pinoy drama. Aware Mr. Bobby Reyes' writings on the scandal in San Jose which eventually proved him right, perhaps he maybe right on yet another concerning scandal at NaFFa, to which he could be sued for libel and that, also evidently is still absent. Unless I have not noticed. In the meantime I applaud Pres. Obama's appointment of Ms Rozita Lee having presumed she may have contributed fairly great sum to his party to warrant such appointment. Oh well,, Let's enjoy the delectable ' Pangat ' dishes culturally ; Pangat-long init lang. Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF