Pareng Romy, It's a compelling story. That woman's appointment to Obama's presidential advisory commission must be stopped, or at least, vetted more. Otherwise, all your writings about the "corrupt" leadership of NaFFAA and the exposes that you and LOLO Bobby have diligently written in tandem would be all for naught. Her winning that appointment would be a sure triumph for the "crooks" of NaFFAA, but defeating that appointment would put the last nail, so to speak, to the coffin of NaFFAA's leading thieves. Que horror, if she wins, pare. Take care. Jesse Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
