Why don't we just let Romy and Bobby continue with their investigative reporting? Just like what Charlie Catala said sometime ago. I don't think it would give the Filipino a bad name if that's what some of us are afraid of. Maybe, one organization, yes, but not the whole Filipino community. NaFFAA should be cleared of all charges and suspicions. And that can be done with the hiring of an independent law firm to do the investigation. Likewise, until proven guilty, certain officers of NaFFAA should be considered innocent. Ernie Turla As posted also in Fil-AmForum@yahoogroups.com Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
