{xtypo_quote} I understand and respect Lolo Bobby's viewpoints. He is an institution in the Fil-Am community. – Dr. Jun Rasul posted in an e-forum on Medicare on Feb. 26, 2011 {/xtypo_quote}

Yes, Dr. Jun Rasul and many leaders in the Filipino-American communities know the track record of Lolo Bobby Reyes and his friends in battling even Filipino diplomats and established public-benefit corporations over some perceived community causes and concerns. Consul General-designate Tomas “Buddy” Gomez, III, and Consul General Edwin D. Bael initially laughed at Lolo Bobby’s activism in 1993 and 2001, respectively. Mr. Gomez’s nomination was withdrawn and Mr. Bael was recalled some three years ahead of his tenure’s end because of public protests initiated by Lolo Bobby.

The ruling cliques of the National Federation of Filipino-American Associations (NaFFAA), the Filipino-American National Historical Society (FANHS) and the “Books for the Barrios” have experienced drastic reductions in membership and supporters and big drops in donations after Lolo Bobby and his friends decided to fight for reforms and the ATIC in the said public-benefit corporations. Lolo Bobby coined the ATIC (accountability, transparency, integrity and credibility) slogan in 2002.

Then Philippine Tourism Secretary Mina Gabor experienced how Lolo Bobby and his friends fought for principles when they demanded the compliance of the ATIC slogan when her office fielded four Filipino floats at the 1997 and 1998 Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade. Lolo Bobby defended himself "In Propria Persona" at the Superior Court of Los Angeles, California, when Mrs. Lourdes Ongkeko, then the regional chair of the NaFFAA and concurrent chair of the US-Philippines Tourism Advisory Council, sued him in 2000 for libel after he called her and the Philippine tourism officials as crooks in his exposés about the parade floats. Lolo Bobby won five out of the seven issues in the libel case tried by a jury in 2002, without him presenting any witness or submitting any piece of evidence for the defense.

The whole Overseas-Filipino world knows that Lolo Bobby and his supporters never give up. They have been fighting the NaFFAA, the FANHS and the Books for the Burgis, oops, Barrios since 2000. And they are still fighting hard without any let up. Lolo Bobby has even reported finally in May 2011 the ruling NaFFAA clique to the federal authorities for tax evasion and other violations of the Income Tax Law and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Act.

Obviously you chose to ignore our e-mail of request sent to you on June 10, 2011, at 10:00 a.m., Pacific Standard Time. On the other hand the Public Affairs Division of Chevron immediately acknowledged receipt of a similar inquiry in the same morning of June 10th, as described in the article, <http://www.mabuhayradio.com/ecology-and-the-environment/back-to-bacman-tracing-to-the-geothermal-plant-an-apparent-cause-of-pollution-in-sorsogon-bay>

We reiterate our request for your side of the controversial issue of the pollution of Sorsogon Bay that has been claimed by environmental activists as being caused by your BacMan geothermal plant. If you do not favor us within 24 hours with a reply that will manifest also a desire to engage the peoples of Sorsogon and Albay in a meaningful dialogue to address the issue of cleaning up the waste waters of the said geothermal facility, we will commence an immediate boycott of your sister company, the ABS

CBN, especially its Pay-TV operations in the United States and Canada.

Yes, while your conglomerate thinks that Sorsogonans are powerless to force you to comply with the provisions of the Clean Water Act of the Philippines insofar as

Here is proof that both the EDC and the ABS-CBN are sister companies:

Not the First Time to Threaten a Boycott of the ABS-CBN

On January 7, 2008, Lolo Bobby sent a protest letter to the ABS-CBN's executives in Redwood City

California

, over the protest of Cebuanos and Cebuano-American community leaders over the perceived racial slur in a movie produced by a subsidiary of ABS

CBN

On Jan. 23, 2008, Rafael Lopez of the ABS-CBN replied to Lolo Bobby, which reply the Lolo Bobby was asked to head in the United States – as a member of the Cebu Brotherhood, Inc. (

CBI

) – the boycott against

ABS

CBN

. But the protest was stopped when Cebuano leaders in the Philippines were appeased by executives of the

CBN

. Lolo Bobby has been a

CBI

member since 1994. He co-chaired its Sinulog Festival-L.A. committee in 2007 and 2008. Mr. Reyes eventually was elected as the first-non native Cebuano to the

CBI
Board of Directors in February 2008.

The ABS-CBN executives further realized the support that Lolo Bobby gets from the community in May 2010. This was when supporters of then-presidential candidate Sen. Manny Villar designated Lolo Bobby to represent the Villar Camp in a televised “Miting de Avance” that an ABS

CBN
program, “Balitang
America
” aired. Here is a video of Lolo Bobby’s appearance at the studio:

As the ABS-CBN executives and Lolo Bobby realize, “one keeps friends close but enemies (adversaries) closer.”

Why the Boycott Against ABS-CBN Pay-TV Operations Will Hurt

The ABS-CBN's Pay-TV operations in the United States and Canada consisting of six channels cost Filipino subscribers an average of $35 per month.

Reportedly the ABS

CBN

has managed to sign up some 200,000+ subscribers in North America

. There are more-than 600,000 Filipino households in the United States
alone.

If the Sorsoganons, the Friends of Bobby Reyes (FBR) and North-American Friends of the Philippi nes will be able to persuade 100,000 Filipino clients in the United States and Canada

---

to drop off the

CBN

, it will cost roughly (in gross receipts) US$3.5-million per month. More advertising revenues can be lost if the pro-

SOS

Bay demonstrators will picket the Philippine and/or North-American offices of the companies buying commercials in the

CBN channels. (A thousand clients pay the just US$35,000 or Pesos 1.4-million per month, which the Lopez consortium may be able to afford to lose initially. But if the boycott extends to Metro Manila, will the economic results not hurt the Lopez-owned conglomerate?) What business likes to appear as a polluter and an enemy of Mother Earth?

CBN

There are after all North-American competitors of the ABS-CBN that can deliver also Filipino programs such as the GMA7 and starting next month, a Pay-TV operation of Channel 5 of Manila.

Perhaps it would make sense for the EDC and ABS-CBN to protect the environment. Perhaps their executives will find it cheaper to spend between US$6-million to $10-million in building a modern sewage-treatment plant that

Written by Bobby M. Reyes

will treat the waste waters being discharged by their BacMan Geothermal Plant. And pipe the treated water not to Sorsogon Bay but to the nearer Pacific Ocean , off the coast of the Bacon District of Sorsogon City.

It is, therefore, a Win-Win situation for the environment and a No-Win situation for the EDC and its sister companies that belong to the Lopez consortium. Now, will the EDC and the ABS-CBN resort to reason or call the bluff (if they think that Sorsogonans are bluffing)? “

To be

(boycotted)

or not to be

” is the question.

Who will blink first?

(To be continued . . .)
