Here are two more news videos about caregivers and the issues they raised during a public forum.

1. Laws are in place protecting caregivers and their rights, and also those of employers. Despite these, however, employers continue to abuse caregivers with impunity, according to this story Pinky told a forum for caregivers on Saturday, June 23.

2. Credit must be given to these brave workers who decided to come put out and speak about their experiences working and living the life of caregivers, many of whom are victimized by both employers and recruiters. Their courage to stand up and speak out will hopefully spark some meaningful changes in the rules governing them.
