NEWS FLASH: This article is now the second most-popular result in the Google search category of "Palin's Coined Words" (out of 707,000 plus results). This means that some articles in the MabuhayRadio.com are read also by non-Filipinos, thereby making this website relevant even in non-Filipino events or personalities in the United States.

Former Alaska Governor Sarah Palin, oops, Palin has allegedly coined many new English words that she will use in her drive to become the leading aspirant for the "Republican Party's" nomination for "President" in 2012. It is not true, however, that the "Price Pfister Filter Faucet®" is suing Ms. Palin for trademark violation or copyright infringement. Here are the top-ten new words coined allegedly by Ms. Palin:

10. Refudiate. It is now part of the English-language history, as people can read in the Huffington Post, as per this hyperlink:
