By JOSEPH G. LARIOSAC HICAGO (jGLi) – It is not always every election, especially in California, that voters will have a rooting interest, especially among Filipino Americans or Asian Americans, for that matter.

Aware of this record that the first woman California Chief Justice – the first California Chief Justice – was rejected when she ran for re-election, the incoming California Chief Justice in Associate Justice Cantil-Sakauye, I am sure, would be soundly guided by the precedent.

I have not yet met Justice Cantil-Sakauye in person. But because she finds the time to respond to my email I believe she is transparent and she opens up on sensitive questions that can educate the voters about her.

Her Portuguese-Filipino father also worked like her mother but retired from the federal government as an airplane repair employee. He died 11 and ½ years ago at the age of 74.

If elected in Nov. 2, Justice Cantil-Sakauye will become the second woman Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of California. She will be first Filipino and Asian American to become Chief Justice of California Supreme Court.

Filipino-American Voters in California Should Get Out and Vote for Justice Cantil-Sakauye - MabuhayRadi
