A "Conference of Overseas Filipinos for Good Governance" will be held at the Sofitel Hotel on July 1 and 2, 2010, in Metro Manila, Philippines. Gregorio Macabenta, the chairman of the National Federation of Filipino-American Associations (NaFFAA), is one of the conference's moderators. The NaFFAA is said to be one of the primary sponsors of the conference, if not its prime mover.

The NaFFAA's move in calling for the conference is like sending Scrooge to teach Filipinos how to embellish the celebration of Christmas. It is akin to sending a NaFFAA wolf pack to guard a flock of sheep in the Philippines.

{xtypo_quote} Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. (16) You will know them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles? (17) So, every sound tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears evil fruit. (18)—Matthew 7:15-18 {/xtypo_quote}

Romeo P. Marquez will probably roll in laughter on hearing that the NaFFAA national-executive officers (NEOs) will teach Filipino leaders the tenets of good governance. Mr. Marquez will laugh harder if gets to know that the NaFFAA NEOs will also teach Filipinos and their associations how to achieve economic independence. Why would Mr. Marquez, now a Toronto

Canada-based investigative reporter, almost die laughing? Because the NaFFAA is financially-and-morally bankrupt. Three of the founding NEOs have declared personal bankruptcies. Please read one of Mr. Marquez's articles in the section of this website,

NaFFAA Now "Homeless" in DC, As Its Top Officials Resign as Organization Teeters on Insolvency

. The article was published on April 29, 2010

Here is another of Mr. Marquez's reports on the NaFFAA, Is NaFFAA a Spent "Milking Cow" and/or the "Fil-Am Version of the SS Titanic?"

It was published on Sept. 1, 2009.

Now, the NaFFAA NEOs want to be appointed the head honchos of the Presidential Commission for Good Government (PCGG). They are also lobbying for a NaFFAA NEO to be appointed the new Philippine ambassador to the United States. Yes, the NaFFAA NEOs helped Noyonoy Aquino become the President-elect by garnering for him 7,232 votes out of 11,892 ballots among Filipino-American voters and contributing $100,000 to his campaign funds. But the NaFFAA NEOs promised to raise $2-million for the Aquino-Roxas slate per this article written by Chicago-based Joseph G. Lariosa:

OFWs Cannot Run But Can Raise Funds

But there are doubts if the Commission on Appointments of the Philippine Congress will confirm the presidential nominees from among the NaFFAA NEOs if its members will be able to read this Feb. 15, 2008, damning report:

The NaFFAA \(a Corrupt Organization\) Cannot Wage an Anti-Corruption Campaign in the Philippines

{xtypo_quote} And yes, it also needs new leadership ... and perhaps, even a new name. Because, it now appears to many Fil-Ams that the acronym, NaFFAA, connotes 'NaKAWAN-AH'—Jesse Jose {/xtypo_quote}

Seattle, Washington-based columnist, Jesse Jose, will also end up in guffaws until his stomach hurts once he reads this report. Probably, Mr. Jose will ask if the Filipino people and their leaders are that dumb if they want the NaFFAA NEOs to teach them honesty in governance and show them how not to run an organization?

There are almost 100 articles and commentaries in this website that discuss the various scandals in the NaFFAA: from the naffaagate (49 stories and counting) to the Menorgate and the Ballygate.

Mr. Marquez has written other articles found in his "San Diego Happenings) such as, Will the NaFFAA Survive to Be the 'Voice' For Filipinos in America?

Now, it is up to the Filipino public-and-private-sector leaders and policy-and-decision makers to ask the NaFFAA NEOs if our articles about them and the NaFFAA are true. We have been daring the NaFFAA NEOs since May 2000 – when we called them a bunch of crooks – to sue us for libel. To date, we have not received even a demand letter for retraction. We stand by our reports. To the Filipino leaders and the Filipino people, we say finally, “Caveat emptor”
