I chanced upon your article, Bobby, while looking for Bicolano folk songs to study. I was happy to know that there are others like you, who still remember Raul, the Bicolano, the Atenean, the Bedan, the Concon delegate, the congressman, the Senator, the Sec. of Education, the twice defeated candidate for President of our country, the Filipino who loved and served so intensely, he had to be called home so soon. Yes, seven years in heaven, in happiness, in peace. I never fail to pray to him for guidance, strength and protection. Hope you do, too. Warmest regards,
