(As Posted in the Facebook) Dear Online Friends: You will only get to realize what I stand for once you get to know that the legendary journalist Jessica Mitford is my inspiration. When she was living she said: "I may not be able to change the world (w/ my writings) but @ least I can embarrass the guilty." Am doing sometimes better than Ms. Mitford for I can make fun through satire & humor the guilty & their accomplices. I am using the power of the pen, nay, keyboard not only to change matters for the better in my backyard but also life as we know it in our homeland. Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF
