Sen. Mar “Mr. Palengke” Roxas wants to be the next President of the Philippines. Apparently, his choice of cuss words at a public rally might have doomed his candidacy. Senator Roxas is now the butt of jokes.

QUOTE.

At the anti-Charter Change rally in Makati City last Friday, Sen. Mar Roxas told the crowd, “Put_ng-ina! Patayin ang Gloria Forever Cha Cha na ito!” When Korina Sanchez heard this, she said, “Sh_t! Pa'no pa ko magiging first lady n'yan?”

During the anti-Charter Change rally in Makati City, Sen. Mar Roxas shouted “put_ng ina!” The use of the expletive came as a shock to Roxas' closest aides... mainly because in private, the senator only uses words like “Imbyerna,” “Keber!,” and “Etchos!”

6: Mar, si Erap 'to. Salamat sa pagmumura mo. At least, mas madaling ma-narrow down ang choices ng opposition.

5: Manuel, this is your mamita! Hijo naman, ano na lang ang iisipin ng akin mga amiga? Na ikaw ay persona mal educado? Na mal ejemplo ako bilang madre de familia? Usted debe pedir perdón! (Read: You must apologize!) Ora mismo!

4: Hello senator, Danton Remoto again. In fairness, lalaking lalaki ka that night!

3: Hon, Korina here. Ang tanga-tanga mo! 'Di ka ba na-inform na may nakatutok na camera?

2: Mar, it's Senator Villar. Hahahahahahahahaha! One down.

The moral of this story about Senator Roxas? If a presidential timber wants to be taken seriously, he or she should not use the language of the proverbial gutter, especially that used by people who work to make sure the drainage of a public market (palengke) remains clean of garbage. # # #
